

...entire forenoon of Thursday

work, as a protest against such a comparison, in which the Silver King Cuddihon company attempted to force upon them. No other properties in the camp are affected, but the three hundred and seventy miners and other employees of the Silver King Cuddihon company walked out rather than submit to the agreement, which the company demanded their assent to and which the miners term "a most vicious document."

The men on strike include all employees with the exception of the engineers, firemen and pumpmen and the men of Helper, who have taken this decision to demand also the adjustment of other unsatisfactory working conditions and have issued an ultimatum to the company that it live up to the state law and cease which the miners refused to go. The resolutions adopted by the miners at their meeting this afternoon also granted concessions to the mine operators by permitting the engineers, firemen and pumpmen to remain at their posts until Thursday evening.

Monday evening, October 18th, says Helper's Times, Onward Lodge No. 11, Knights of Pythian had the honor and distinction of being paid an official visit by the grand lodge officers of the grand division of Utah, consisting of Grand Chancellor S. H. Randall of Lake City, Grand Fraternal E. Mitchell of Tremonton and Grand Innes Guard James Terry, Jr., of Salt Lake City. At the conclusion of a round meeting held in Castle Hall, the members repaired to Hotel Helper, where they were banqueted sumptuously.

hundred head, belonging to the Indian Creek Cattle company and other, passed through Moab yesterday enroute for Thompsons, from where they will be shipped to Eastern markets. D. L. Gouldstock and J. M. Tuttle were in charge of the stock.

Arthur A. Taylor returned yesterday from Castleton, where he inspected the dipping of sheep. Flocks generally are in good condition.

Man arrived in Price last night from Mt. Pleasant and will meet the Price academy team in a game at City Park this afternoon. There is quite a rivalry between these teams as to which is the best, the Wasmuths having defeated the Price boys in the last encounter.